Dealer Terms and Conditions; State Tax/License Requirements

1. Booths will only be in the name, and only occupied by, the dealer that is the registered exhibitor. The dealer that is registered as the exhibitor may not sublet the booth to another entity without prior written permission. Whitman Expos reserves the right to reassign booths at its discretion.
2. Dealers are expected to have booths staffed, with inventory on display until the close of business on Saturday. Dealers whose booths are not open (staffed, with inventory on display) at the close of business on Saturday will not be given priority position for booth selection. Requests for early departure must be in writing and will be honored at the discretion of show management.
3. No dealer may knowingly exhibit or offer for sale any illegal coins, counterfeits, forgeries, unmarked copies, or other spurious merchandise. The penalty for such action shall be immediate ejection of the dealer from the bourse and the possible suspension and/or subsequent expulsion from future Whitman Expos. Insurance against loss of material is the responsibility of the dealer. Show management reserves the right to revise show dates and/or hours.
4. For safety and visibility, any non-expo signage must hang no more than two feet below the booth's rear piping. Signs placed along back walls are not restricted. Your cooperation ensures clear sightlines for security and a safe environment for all attendees.
5. Booth holder shall be responsible for compliance with all federal, state, and local laws, including the activities of all badge holders operating under the name of booth holder. This includes, but is not limited to, the Maryland sales tax laws and the Maryland Trader's License law. It is our understanding that the Maryland sales and use tax does not apply to a sale of precious metal bullion or coins if the sale price is greater than $1,000 AND THE SALE OCCURS AT THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION CENTER. We encourage all dealers to consult their legal and/or tax adviser as to their responsibility to do business at the Baltimore Convention Center.

The Expo is intended for the display of numismatic items and numismatic-related items offered for sale by the registered dealer in the ordinary course of business. Whitman Expos reserves the right to require dealers to remove non-numismatic items from display. Numismatic auctioneers (other than the Official Expo Auctioneer) may display up to two hundred (200) highlighted lots for future auctions and agree not to conduct any auction or competitive bid sales of displayed lots within four weeks of the Whitman Expo in which they were displayed.

Maryland Sales Tax

Whitman Expos is required by law to provide the Comptroller of Maryland the names and addresses of all dealers who are show exhibitors. Each exhibitor is responsible for the collection, reporting, and payment of taxable sales made during each Baltimore Expo. In Maryland, as of November 1, 2025, there is no sales tax on transactions of coins and bullion over $1,000 as long as the sale occurs in the Baltimore Convention Center. Sales under $1,000 are subject to sales tax. The Maryland Department of Revenue sends out temporary sales tax forms to all exhibitors that do not have a Maryland sales tax number. If you are unable to attend or are a wholesale only exhibitor, you are still required to sign and return the form. If you fail to return the form, the Comptroller of Maryland will not issue you a future temporary sales tax number and you will not be able to do business in Maryland. Any exhibitor who does not comply with the laws of the State of Maryland will not be allowed to exhibit at future conventions. If you have not received your temporary sales and use tax license prior to a show, you may be delinquent in paying sales taxes at one or more past shows. A representative from the Comptroller of Maryland office may attend a show to collect delinquent sales taxes before issuing these companies licenses. At the show, you must be prepared to pay any delinquent sales taxes or provide proof of paid sales taxes for any past show in question. When all tax matters are resolved you will be allowed to setup and sell at the show. For the Maryland Department of Revenue, please declare the type of business you do at the show. This will ensure that your business is categorized correctly when your temporary sales and use tax license is issued for each show.

Indicate all that apply on your dealer booth application or reply to this email with it, so we may update our records:

Retail Sales Wholesale Sales OR No Sales

If you have any questions regarding your compliance with the collection, reporting, and payment of taxable sales or believe you are delinquent in your sales tax payments from any past shows, please contact Andrea B. Fosler, Comptroller of Maryland Compliance Division, Temporary License Unit, 410-767-1543 (Phone), 410-333-5158 (Fax), or afosler@comp.state.md.us.
